WorldCom, Inc., Transferee, for Consent to Transfer Control of Corporations Holding Commission Licenses and Authorizations Pursuant to Sections 214 and 310(d) of the Communications Act and Parts 1, 21, 24, 25, 63, 73, 78, 90, and 101, CC Docket No. 99-333

Dear Ms. Salas:

On various dates during the course of the above-referenced proceeding, WORLDCom, Inc. ("WorldCom") and Sprint Corporation ("Sprint") submitted confidential documents ("Stamped Confidential Documents") to the Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") in connection with its review of the pending merger.¹ Two copies of each Stamped Confidential Document were filed under seal and were subject to the terms of the Protective Order adopted by the Common Carrier Bureau for this proceeding.² Appendix A of ¹ Prior to May 1, 2000, the official corporate name of WorldCom was MCI WorldCom, Inc. Some of the Stamped Confidential Documents filed in this proceeding were submitted to the Commission prior to the effective date of the corporate name change, and therefore include references to MCI WorldCom. For purposes of this letter, references to "WorldCom" should be understood to mean "MCI WorldCom," where appropriate.

² Applications of Sprint Corporation, Transferor, and MCI WorldCom, Inc., Transferee, for Consent to Transfer Control of Corporations Holding Commission Licenses and Authorizations Pursuant to Section 214 and 310(d) of the Communications Act and Parts 1, 21, 24, 25, 63, 73, 78, and 101, CC Docket No. 99-333, Order Adopting Protective Order, DA 00-186 (CCB Feb. 2, 2000), ¶ 2 and app. A ("Protective Order"); Order Modifying Protective Order, DA 00-827

the Protective Order states that "[w]ithin two weeks after conclusion of this proceeding (which includes any administrative or judicial review), Stamped Confidential Documents and all copies of same shall be returned to the Submitting Party."³

On July 13, 2000, WorldCom and Sprint advised the Commission that the boards of directors of both companies had voted to terminate their merger.⁴ Pursuant to the terms of the Protective Order, WorldCom and Sprint hereby request the return of all copies of Stamped Confidential Documents filed by the applicants. To assist Commission staff in gathering the relevant documents, separate lists identifying the Stamped Confidential Documents filed by WorldCom and Sprint in this proceeding are enclosed.

We appreciate your attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
